

MIRRORS OF EACH OTHER

By
Connie Girard

Fear, Rage, Hate, Desperation, a lack of Hope, Loss
Creates a Gang Member.
It is a dark world veiled without light, but promising the world.
Good times are not had by all.

Mass Marketing! We want you! Look at the numbers of how we're growing!
Take the streets! Join today! Belong! Wear your Tat proud!
You have a real home with us. This is your home. Bond.
An Illusion and temporary fix to mask pain. Misguided Loyalty.

Wanting to belong so bad, hungry to feel loved and accepted by peers and others
Looking on the outside, not within...to find a home.
Peptides are kickin in. An Addiction. Ride the Roller Coaster!
To feel so important, feared, noticed and invincible,
It's a rush! Self importance, the Ego.

"I can do anything" I got my back covered.
Taking an Oath of do or die.
"I love you, Bro. I'd die for you, man.
I'd walk the line if I fail you.
And when you try to leave, many do.

What is the Public's Emotion?
Fear, Rage, Hate, Desperation, a lack of Hope.
"We're gonna take back the streets" they shout.
It's a War.
People are shot.
The Jails are getting full.
A child dies, needlessly.

Metaphysically,
Negative energies are feeding off from Negative Energies.
Look at the Focus.

What is the opposite of Fear, Rage, Hate, Desperation, a lack of Hope?
Love, Light and Kindness.
There is not one Soul that walks the Earth that does not need Love.
Most of all, people need to love themselves as part of the "Divine",
To know that we are all connected by our Atoms.
We are Mirrors of each other.

Peace begins one by one.
To a homeless person, what is more important than a "real home"?
A real home filled with joy and love, a connection.
A connection to ourselves.
We manifest our thoughts.
