

2012 Envirothon Current Issue Topic: Low Impact Development

The articles/websites listed below contain the information upon which the test will be written.

Energy Efficient Homes: Landscaping

<http://edis.ifas.ufl.edu/fy1050>

Florida Field Guide to Low Impact Development: Cisterns/Rain Barrels

http://buildgreen.ufl.edu/Fact_sheet_Cisterns_Rain_Barrels.pdf

Florida Field Guide to Low Impact Development: Low Impact Site Preparation

http://buildgreen.ufl.edu/Fact_sheet_Low_Impact_Site_Preparation.pdf

Florida Field Guide to Low Impact Development: Permeable Surfaces

http://buildgreen.ufl.edu/Fact_sheet_Permeable_Surfaces.pdf

Florida Field Guide to Low Impact Development: Resource Efficient Landscapes and Irrigation

http://buildgreen.ufl.edu/Fact_sheet_Resource_Efficient_Landscapes_and_Irrigation.pdf

Balancing Development with Water Quality Protection: What is LID and What are the Benefits of Utilizing LID?

http://www.envirothon.org/pdf/2012/11_SWMPC_LID_NEWS_2.pdf

Balancing Development with Water Quality Protection: General LID Concepts and Techniques

http://www.envirothon.org/pdf/2012/12_SWMPC_LID_NEWS_3.pdf

Balancing Development with Water Quality Protection: What is a Watershed?

http://www.envirothon.org/pdf/2012/10_SWMPC_LID_NEWS_1.pdf

Balancing Development with Water Quality Protection: LID Techniques

http://www.envirothon.org/pdf/2012/13_SWMPC_LID_NEWS_4.pdf