

Susan W. Leisner

Professional Profile

Ms. Leisner has worked in the investment industry as a financial analyst with both Raymond James and Associates and Dean Witter Reynolds. She also worked as a financial writer for several business publications including Florida Trend, South Magazine and Barron's Business and Financial Weekly. In 1981 she was appointed by Governor Bob Graham to the Florida Public Service Commission, which regulates telecommunications, electric and gas utilities throughout Florida. Following her tenure on the PSC she joined the consulting firm of Shooshan and Jackson in Washington, D.C., specializing in the areas of finance and regulatory issues.

Community Service/Affiliations

Ms. Leisner currently serves on the Boards of the University of Tampa and The Home Association. She is also the past president and founder of The Athena Society, a professional women's group that promotes equality and opportunity for women. Ms. Leisner has served on numerous community and non-profit boards throughout Hillsborough County.

Personal

Ms. Leisner received her MBA from New York University and has earned the designation CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst).