Typically this is the information one would find in the "About Us" portion of a company website.

This is where we would like to “get to know your company”. We are looking for answers to questions such as:

How long has your company been in business?
What accomplishments and innovations have you done that you would like us to know about?
How many employees do you have? In how may states or countries?

The sales literature we are looking for is typically what one would find in a promotional brochure. This is where you can place all your information about your product.
Section B is for the pertinent engineering and testing information about your product. In this particular section we are looking for the:

i. Scaled Drawings

Scaled Drawings (or MSDS sheets for chemical products) - As a minimum, a picture of the item should be presented.
Section B is for the pertinent engineering and testing information about your product. In this particular section we are looking for the:

ii. Results of In-House Testing Program(s)

Results of in-house testing Programs –

In this section the first few pages must be a flowchart for your QA/QC program. This flow chart should then be followed by samples of recent testing results from your QA/QC program. There should be a link to where the submitted testing results fit in on the QA/QC flowchart. After that information is provided, you are welcome to submit other additional testing you feel will demonstrate the product will perform as claimed.
This is an example QA/QC control procedure flowchart from a fictitious company. Please note the decision locations are diamonds and are locations where testing documentation must be presented in your submittal packet. The flowchart you submit must coincide with (and reference) the information you submit.
Section B is for the pertinent engineering and testing information about your product. In this particular section we are looking for the:

iii. Independent Laboratory Test Results

In this section we would like to see any test, performed by an unbiased outside testing agency, which backs up performance claims. We prefer to see test results on company letterhead (different from your company letterhead) and signed by a Professional Engineer or a licensed lab technician.
Section B is for the pertinent engineering and testing information about your product. In this particular section we are looking for the:

iv. Verification of Appropriate Certifications

Section C

Product Specifications

In this section, provide any specifications you developed for use by Hillsborough County or other parties interested in using your product.
As a minimum, we are looking for a direct comparison table of your product to something already approved in our (Hillsborough County Product Review) Appendix B. You choose the comparison, but please remember to think of this as an "As-Equal" comparison table.

County Limit:

In situations where there is a set “County Limit” of products (and that number has already been met), the applicant (you) must provide documentation to substantiate replacing one of the already approved products.

The goal in such cases is to demonstrate a “marked-improvement” over an already approved product (financial or otherwise). An approval in such a category will require a major investment by the County. This change will impact our warehouse product inventory.

All statements must be verifiable and supported by information in Section B of this submittal package.
Section E

This location(s) must be mentioned in your QA/QC flowchart and match the certifications presented in Section B. Please do not mention company owned locations that do not manufacture the product you are submitting.
